MICROFICHE RECORD PUBLICATION

(C) OCTOBER 1988

THIS VOLUME IN THE SERIES COVERS TWO ITEMS OF DOVER INTEREST AND THE SOCIETY IS VERY GRATEFUL TO MRS KATHLEEN HOLLINGSBEE AND MR CHRISTOPHER BUCKINGHAM FOR ALLOWING THE SOCIETY TO PUBLISH THEIR WORK.

THE 1802 LIST OF DOVER ELECTORS IS OF PARTICULAR INTEREST IN ADDING TO OUR SERIES OF UNPUBLISHED POLL BOOKS AND WE HOPE THAT MEMBERS WILL FIND THESE LISTS VERY USEFUL.

CHRISTOPHER BUCKINGHAM HAS GIVEN A HELPFUL PRECIS OF THE LATER HISTORY OF THE BURIAL GROUND. THERE HAS ALSO BEEN ANOTHER TWO LISTINGS MADE OF THE BURIAL GROUND, ONE OF THEM BY THE KENT ARCHAEOLOGICAL RESCUE UNIT. SINCE THERE ARE SOME DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THESE COPIES IT IS HOPED TO PUBLISH A REVISED EDITION AT A LATER DATE.

DOVER ELECTORS 1802

NOTES BY TRANSCRIBER

This list of people eligible to vote in the 1802 Dover General Election is contained in an A-Z leather covered booklet (approx 7" x 4") in the Local Studies Section, Reference Library, DOVER, Kent.

The Election was contested by three Candidates. The poll was open three days, the votes recorded being: Trevanion 666; Smith 534; Huskinson (a new man) 466. John Trevanion represented Dover first in 1774 and was re-elected. Spencer Smith was the son of John Smith, the owner of the curious castellated residence called "Smith's Folly" which stood on the shore between the Castle Cliff and the Castle Jetty, and he was the brother of Admiral Sir Sydney Smith; he also was re-elected, as there were two Members of Parliament at this time.

The booklet of names includes ruled columns headed by contestants' names, after voters' names. Some entries in the columns are left blank (about 37%), some have dashes against two names (about 51%) and some have dashes against one name (about 12%). It would appear therefore that some on the list did not vote, most voted for 2 names, and the rest voted for one only.

Many voters (who were all Freemen of Dover), were not resident in Dover and a contemporary cartoon of the period pictures the 'outdwellers' travelling to the election by an amusing miscellany of 'transport'. Attempts were made at various times to restrict the vote to only those freemen resident in the Borough.

Some abbreviations are used in the booklet, for occupations, address, etc. and most of these are self explanatory (ie: marn - mariner; shipwr. - shipwright, cordw. - cordwainer)

Some names appear to have been listed twice

The meaning of the letters inserted in the first column before a few voters' names, is at the moment, not too clear to the transcriber who would be interested to have an explanation. These are, eg. 'CO' 'OD' 'DD'.
