

MAY 12TH 1965

at the Victoria Hall, Hawkhurst.

" A D R A M A E V E N I N G "

Plays presented by

The Hawkhurst Players

and

Members of the Women's Institute

In conjunction with the Hawkhurst Branch of TOC H to mark the
50TH JUBILEE OF TOC H

All proceeds for
The Pestalozzi Children's Village Trust
at Sedlescombe

PART I

The Hawkhurst Players
Present

"THIS DESIRABLE COTTAGE"

A Farce in One Act
by
Anthony Booth

Cast

Bill Blagshawe	-	Colin Denman
Julie, his wife	-	Valerie Manser
Don Anderson	-	Michael Cole
Sally, his wife	-	Dilys Vaughan
Woody	-	Reg Rummery
Zina	-	Sheila Denman
Fred	-	Terry McCarthy

---oOo---

A quiet cottage by the sea; what could be a more perfect setting for a honeymoon. This is what Julie and Bill Blagshawe think but soon find they are mistaken!

Prompter	-	Eileen Day
Stage Manager	-	John Knott
Effects	-	Tim Young
Co-produced by	-	Valerie Manser and Dilys Vaughan

MAGICAL INTERLUDE - BILL WEST

PART II

The Hawkhurst Women's Institute
Present

"G E O R G I A N"

A One Act Play
by

Mary Komlosy

(By arrangement with J. Garnet Miller Ltd.)

Characters

Susan Branks	)	Sisters	Evelyn Harrison
Phillipa Branks	)	living in the	Violet Butters
Fecility Branks	)	country	Vera Knowers.
Mrs. Lorrimer Smith, the Vicar's wife			Vera Bannister
Mrs. Kornitzer	)	American	Freda Douch
Mrs. Culpepper	)	Tourists	Mary Johnston
Lady Downside		An impoverished aristocrat	Christine Tanter

SCENE: The sitting room in the Branks sisters' cottage.

TIME: The present. An afternoon in June.

Producer:	-	J.W. Jackson
Stage Managers:	-	Christine Thompson and Elsie Wield

Telephone equipment lent by the Post Office.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN