

My Genealogical Will

For Preserving My Family History

Genealogical Codicil to My Last Will and Testament:

To my spouse, children and/or heirs, guardian, administrator or executor:

Upon my death, it is requested that you DO NOT dispose of any or all of my genealogical records, both those prepared personally by me and those prepared by others, which may be in my possession. This includes but is not limited to books, paper and/or computer files, notebooks, correspondence, audio/visual items, photographs, and documents.

If there is no family member that is willing to continue my work, please contact the institution listed below, in order, and determine if they will accept part or all of my genealogical materials.

Kent Family History Society - www.kfhs.org.uk, archivist@kfhs.org

Please remember that my family history studies consumed a great deal of time, travel, and money. Therefore, it is my strong desire that the product of these efforts be preserved and allowed to continue in a manner that will make them available to others in the future.
